progressive work of the Holy Spirit within the Children of God; the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in the clouds of Heaven with Power and Great Glory, accompanied by the Resurrection and Rapture of His Saints to reign with Him; the everlasting Blessedness of the Saved, and the everlasting Punishment of the Lost—as these all are briefly defined in the Doctrinal Basis above referred to:

(h.) To have power to unite with other churches or congregations similarly constituted, in order to form or be incorporated with a single church or religious body, whether under the name of "The Evangelical Church of British Columbia" or such other name as may be mutually agreed upon; to promote unity and strength, and to further the cause of the Gospel: Provided always that any such union or incorporation shall be regarded as a violation of the trust hereby constituted, and therefore invalid, and ab initio null and void, which involves a departure from the doctrine and practice fundamental to the faith and life of the Society as defined in paragraph (b) hereof; and that no union or incorporation with any other religious body can be consummated without the consent of at least three-fourths of the total membership for the time being of the Society.
